Gigi Rollini Named 2015 Florida “Super Lawyer”

Tallahassee, Fla. (June 17, 2015) – Messer Caparello, P.A., is pleased to announce that Gigi Rollini, a shareholder and attorney practicing in its full-service Tallahassee firm, has been named a 2015 “Super Lawyer” in appellate law by Super Lawyers magazine.

Ms. Rollini is a member of Messer Caparello’s Litigation & Appellate Team. Her practice focuses on Florida appellate law, general civil and administrative litigation and litigation support, and all aspects of administrative law, including licensing and regulatory matters, insurance, health and energy law.

Super Lawyers names less than 5% of Florida’s attorneys to its list each year. They are chosen through a competitive selection process that includes peer nominations and evaluations, as well as independent research into a candidate’s professional achievement, credentials, competence, experience, professional activity, pro bono work, honors, and other recognitions.

In addition to being named a “Super Lawyer,” Ms. Rollini is AV-Rated by Martindale—the highest peer rating available—in both appellate and administrative law.

She was recently named one of Florida’s “Extraordinary Woman” by the Florida Association for Women Lawyers (FAWL). Ms. Rollini is a past president of both FAWL and Tallahassee Women Lawyers (TWL), and serves as Florida’s Delegate to the National Association of Women Lawyers (NAWL).

Ms. Rollini also serves as incoming board president of America’s Second Harvest of the Big Bend, a regional food bank that serves 11 counties and 130 partner agencies in North Florida. She is a member of the 2014 Class of Tallahassee’s “25 Women to Know,” and serves on the Club 25 board as well.

Ms. Rollini is a triple Seminole, having received from the Florida State University her J.D., magna cum laude, in 2003; her M.P.A. from the Reubin O’D. Askew School of Public Administration and Policy in 2003; and her B.A. in 1997. She is a lifetime member of the FSU Alumni Association.
